St. Paddy's Day at The Mack

Charlottetown – Get out your green and your lucky charms! Irish eyes will be smilin' at the St. Paddy's Pub Party at The Mack, featuring great live Irish music, drink, food and fun! PEI Presents winners of the 2005 Prince Edward Island Music Award for Roots/Traditional Group Recording of the Year, the Lazy Jacks, for a St. Patrick's Day party!

Lazy Jacks, named for the guide rope of a sail, have been together since 1999 entertaining audiences in ruckus pubs, easy listening concerts and toe-tapping festival venues. The energetic foursome from Prince Edward Island play a rip-roaring fiddle, a cutting tin whistle and a well-plucked banjo. Lazy Jacks back it up with their tight three and four part harmonies and strong musical arrangements.

Their move to original music is starting to make waves around the Maritimes and Canada as they reach an ever widening audience. Don't miss them this St. Patrick's Day!

This show is sponsored by Best Western – Charlottetown.
